PETITION TO WITHDRAW HOLDING OF ABANDONMENT UNDER 37 CFR 1.181

Mail Stop Petition
Commissioner for Patents

Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450

RECEIVED

JUL 1 - 2004

GROUP 3600

Sir:

Pursuant to 37 CFR 1.181, Applicant hereby petitions for withdrawal of the holding of abandonment because the present application is not, in fact, abandoned.

Applicant respectfully submits that the Notice of Abandonment mailed April 6, 2004 was submitted in error and, therefore, the present application is not, in fact, abandoned because the reason cited for the alleged abandonment -- failure to timely file a reply to the Office Action dated July 2, 2003 -- is not correct. In support of this contention, Applicant encloses the following documentation as evidence that Applicant timely filed a fully-responsive reply to the Office Action dated July 2, 2003:

- (1) copy of the Office Action in question - dated July 2, 2004;
- (2) copy of Applicant's facsimile transmittal of December 31, 2004, which included a fully-responsive and timely-filed response to the Office Action and a facsimile confirmation sheet;

- (3) copy of the improperly submitted Notice of Abandonment dated April 4, 2004; and
- (4) copy of Applicant's facsimile transmittal of May 24, 2004 to Examiner John Hayes, which included items (2) and (3) above.

Accordingly, Applicant respectfully requests that the improper holding of abandonment be withdrawn.

CONCLUSION

For at least the reasons set forth above, Applicant respectfully requests that the holding of abandonment be withdrawn and that prosecution for the present application be reopened. Furthermore, as indicated in Applicant's response and amendment of December 31, 2003, all pending claims are patentable over the prior art of record. Accordingly, Applicant respectfully requests that, when prosecution is reopened, all pending claims be allowed. If, in the opinion of the Examiner, a telephonic conference would expedite the allowance of this case, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned attorney at (770) 804-9080.

Respectfully submitted,

Adam E. Crall, Reg. No. 46,646

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address--

This application is abandoned in view of:

1. ☒ Applicant's failure to timely file a proper reply to the Office letter mailed on 12/13
- (a) ☐ A reply was received on _____ (with a Certificate of Mailing or Transmission dated _____), which is after the expiration of the period for reply (including a total extension of time of _____ month(s)) which expired on _____.
- (b) ☐ A proposed reply was received on _____, but it does not constitute a proper reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (a) to the final rejection. (A proper reply under 37 CFR 1.113 to a final rejection consists only of: (1) a timely filed amendment which places the application in condition for allowance; (2) a timely filed Notice of Appeal (with appeal fee); or (3) a timely filed Request for Continued Examination (RCE) in compliance with 37 CFR 1.114).
- (c) ☐ A reply was received on _____ but it does not constitute a proper reply, or a bona fide attempt at a proper reply, to the non-final rejection. See 37 CFR 1.85(a) and 1.111. (See explanation in box 7 below).
- (d) ☒ No reply has been received.
2. ☐ Applicant's failure to timely pay the required issue fee and publication fee, if applicable, within the statutory period of three months from the mailing date of the Notice of Allowance (PTOL-85).
- (a) ☐ The issue fee and publication fee, if applicable, was received on _____ (with a Certificate of Mailing or Transmission dated _____), which is after the expiration of the statutory period for payment of the issue fee (and publication fee) set in the Notice of Allowance (PTOL-85).
- (b) ☐ The submitted fee of $_____ is insufficient. A balance of $_____ is due.
The issue fee required by 37 CFR 1.18 is $_____. The publication fee, if required by 37 CFR 1.18(d), is $_____.
- (c) ☐ The issue fee and publication fee, if applicable, has not been received.
3. ☐ Applicant's failure to timely file corrected drawings as required by, and within the three-month period set in, the Notice of Allowability (PTO-37).
- (a) ☐ Proposed corrected drawings were received on _____ (with a Certificate of Mailing or Transmission dated _____), which is after the expiration of the period for reply.
- (b) ☐ No corrected drawings have been received.
4. ☐ The letter of express abandonment which is signed by the attorney or agent of record, the assignee of the entire interest, or all of the applicants.
5. ☐ The letter of express abandonment which is signed by an attorney or agent (acting in a representative capacity under 37 CFR 1.34(a)) upon the filing of a continuing application.
6. ☐ The decision by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interference rendered on _____ and because the period for seeking court review of the decision has expired and there are no allowed claims.
7. ☒ The reason(s) below:

Examiner called attorney of record. Attorney said the case was transferred to a new office. No further forwarding information was given.

JOHN W. HAYES
PRIMARY EXAMINER

Petitions to revive under 37 CFR 1.137(a) or (b), or requests to withdraw the holding of abandonment under 37 CFR 1.181, should be promptly filed to minimize any negative effects on patent term.

Attachment for PTO-948 (Rev. 03/01, or earlier)
6/18/01

The below text replaces the pre-printed text under the heading, "Information on How to Effect Drawing Changes," on the back of the PTO-948 (Rev. 03/01, or earlier) form.

INFORMATION ON HOW TO EFFECT DRAWING CHANGES

1. Correction of Informalities -- 37 CFR 1.85

New corrected drawings must be filed with the changes incorporated therein. Identifying indicia, if provided, should include the title of the invention, inventor's name, and application number, or docket number (if any) if an application number has not been assigned to the application. If this information is provided, it must be placed on the front of each sheet and centered within the top margin. If corrected drawings are required in a Notice of Allowability (PTOL-37), the new drawings MUST be filed within the THREE MONTH shortened statutory period set for reply in the Notice of Allowability. Extensions of time may NOT be obtained under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a) or (b) for filing the corrected drawings after the mailing of a Notice of Allowability. The drawings should be filed as a separate paper with a transmittal letter addressed to the Official Draftsperson.

2. Corrections other than Informalities Noted by Draftsperson on form PTO-948.

All changes to the drawings, other than informalities noted by the Draftsperson, MUST be made in the same manner as above except that, normally, a highlighted (preferably red ink) sketch of the changes to be incorporated into the new drawings MUST be approved by the examiner before the application will be allowed. No changes will be permitted to be made, other than correction of informalities, unless the examiner has approved the proposed changes.

Timing of Corrections

Applicant is required to submit the drawing corrections within the time period set in the attached Office communication. See 37 CFR 1.85(a).

Failure to take corrective action within the set period will result in ABANDONMENT of the application.

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status of Claims

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-21, 23, 26 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Schulhof et al., U.S. Patent No. 5,572,442.

As per claims 1-21, 23, 26 and 27, Schulhof et al. teach a method for distributing music comprising:

- blanket transmitting, at faster than real time speeds, simultaneously a plurality of music selections to a plurality of customer households for receipt on a plurality of inputs (figures 1 and 5-7; column 5, lines 50-60)
- a first interface enabling at least one customer to preselect and record transmitted music selections in a read/write storage medium (e.g. read/write CDs, magneto-optical disks, digital tape) (abstract; figures 1, 4, and 6; column 5, lines 6-20 and 50-67; column 7, lines 5-53; column 8, lines 60-67; column 12, lines 54-67)

- a second interface permitting the customer to select recorded music for unrestricted playback (figures 1, 4, and 6; column/line 4/48-5/20; column 5, lines 50-67; column 7, lines 5-53; column 9, lines 20-26)
- communicating unrestricted playback selection information to a central controller, via satellite, cable,...etc., and billing the customer for the selected unrestricted playback (column/line 4/48-5/20; column 6, lines 24-52; column/line 7/54-8/2; column 9, lines 20-26; column 10, lines 42-65)
- selection information that includes availability, scheduling and price data (column 5, lines 60-64; column 7, lines 27-33 and 45-53; column/line 7/61-8/4; column 9, lines 26-38)
- an interactive guide, via a display device, to allow users to make content selections, and select functions to playback and record content (abstract; figures 1-4, 6 and 7; column 7, lines 27-53; column/line 9/65-10/15; column/line 11/65-12/10; column 12, lines 54-67; column 13, lines 10-28; column 14, lines 18-26 and 39-55)
- receiving and decoding musical selections and storing decoded selections and associated information in a digital data storage device for temporary storage (figures 2, 3 and 7; column 9, lines 26-38; column 12, lines 10-18 and 29-67)

- accessing the content over the internet link to a website or phone line connection (figure 1; column 7, lines 35-52)
- allowing users to access content one or more times on a no-charge basis prior to permanently selecting the content (column 9, lines 27-37)
- generating a permanent enabling code for inclusion with the permanent recorded music selections to enable unrestricted playback (column 9, lines 27-37)
- communicating with a broadcast satellite up-link facility, operating in the KU or other suitable frequency bands, via a central controller, and transmitting program/pricing information to the broadcast facility on a periodic basis (figures 5 and 7; column 6, lines 24-52)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 22, 24, 25 and 28-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schulhof et al., U.S. Patent No. 5,572,442.

As per claims 22, 24, 25 and 28-30, Schuloff et al. teach a system for transmitting audio content to a plurality of users, where users can record and playback content using a plurality of interfaces, and are billed for using the content distribution service (figures 1 and 4-7; column/line 4/48-5/67; column 6, lines 24-34; column/line 7/54-8/2). Schuloff et al. do not specifically recite using DVD-RAM to record content. However, Schuloff et al. teach that digital, optical, magnetic or other high density, high capacity can be used. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to use DVD-RAM for portable storage (column 4, lines 55-67; column 8, lines 59-67; column 12, lines 54-64). Similarly it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to store a plurality of disks with content recorded thereon.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:
- Lowell teaches an system for downloading content over the internet
 - Logan et al. teach a system for automatically downloading content by using a preselected segment to identify the content to be downloaded and storing content in RAM
 - Payton teaches content on demand

- Wolfe et al. teach music on demand from the internet
- Wiser et al. teach an online music distribution system

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.136, Applicant hereby petitions for an extension of time of (3) three months, extending the time for responding to Official Action to January 2, 2004.

This petition includes the following items:

- (1) Petition for Extension of Time Under 37 CFR 1.136(a) – PTO/SB/22 (2 copies)
- (2) PTO Fee Transmittal Form for FY 2004 – PTO/SB/17
- (3) Credit Card Payment Form – PTO-2038

The statutory fee for the three month extension of time is $475.00 for a small entity.

Amendments

Please amend the claims as follows:

Claim 1. (currently amended) A method of distributing music to customer households comprising the steps of:

blanket transmitting simultaneously a plurality of music selections to a plurality of customer households for receipt on a plurality of inputs;

providing at least one customer household with information identifying available music selections that will be transmitted;

enabling the at least one customer household to preselect and record transmitted music selections in a storage medium;

CI permitting the at least one customer household to select previously recorded music selections for unrestricted playback;

communicating unrestricted playback selection information regarding previously recorded music selection from the at least one customer household to a central controller system; and billing the at least one customer household for the recorded music selections that are selected for unrestricted playback.

Claim 2. (previously presented) The method for distributing music as claimed in claim 1, wherein said transmitting step includes transmitting digital music content at data transmission rates faster than real time.

Claim 3. (previously presented) The method for distributing music as claimed in claim 1, wherein said information includes music selection content availability, scheduling and content pricing data.

Claim 4. (previously presented) The method for distributing music as claimed in Claim 3, wherein said enabling step includes providing an interactive program guide via a display device for enabling customers to select available digital music content and select functions for recording said music content and functions for playing back recorded music content.

Claim 5. (previously presented) The method for distributing music as claims in Claim 4, further comprising the steps of: receiving and decoding transmitted music selection and associated information and storing decoded music selections and associated information in a digital data storage device for temporary storage thereof.

Claim 6. (previously presented) The method for distributing music as claimed in Claim 5, further comprising the step of providing remote access to said decoded content availability, scheduling and content pricing data, said remote access including a direct Internet access link to a website of the content provider or via phone line connection.

Claim 7. (previously presented) The method for distributing music as claimed in Claim 6, further including the step of enabling a customer to listen to decoded and stored music selections one or more times on a no-charge basis prior to permanently selecting said recorded music selection that the customer desires to maintain for unrestricted playback.

Claim 8. (previously presented) The method for distributing music as claims in Claim 7, further including the step of generating a permanent enabling code for inclusion with said permanent recorded music selections to thereby enable unrestricted playback.

C1
Claim 9. (previously presented) The method for distributing music as claims in Claim 1, wherein said broadcasting transmission system includes a direct broadcast satellite (DBS) system, said transmitting step comprising: scheduling and transmitting encoded music content to a direct broadcast satellite up-link facility via said central controller, said means additionally transmitting program/pricing information to said up-link facility on a periodic basis.

Claim 10. (currently amended) A system for distributing music to customer households comprising: ~~the steps of:~~ a transmission means for operable to:

simultaneously blanket transmitting a plurality of music selections and information identifying available music selections to a plurality of customer households; and

providing at least one customer household with information identifying available music selections that will be transmitted;

a computer-based recording, storage and playback station at the least one customer household, said station comprising:

means enabling the at least one customer household to preselect and record transmitted music selections in a storage medium; means for receiving simultaneous transmission of multiple music selection on a plurality of inputs and for recording the received music selections in a storage medium; means enabling the customer to select previously recorded music selections for unrestricted playback; and means for communicating unrestricted playback selection information regarding previously recorded music selection from the at least one customer household to a central controller system; and a billing system associated with the central controller system to bill the at least one customer household for the recorded music selections that are selected for unrestricted playback.

Claim 11. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 10, wherein said transmission means includes direct broadcast satellite (DBS) system.

Claim 12. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 11, wherein said transmission means transmits digital music content at a data transmission rates faster than real time.

Claim 13. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 11, wherein said information includes music selection content availability, scheduling and content pricing data.

Claim 14. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 13, wherein said means permitting the customer household to preselect desired transmitted music selections for recording includes interactive means providing a program guide via a display device for enabling customers to select available digital music content, said interactive means further enabling the customer to select functions for recording said music content and functions for playing back recorded music content.

Claim 15. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 13, wherein said computer-based recording, storage and playback station further comprises a decoder device for receiving and decoding transmitted music selections and associated information and storing decoded music selections and associated information in a digital data storage device for temporary storage thereof.

Claim 16. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 13, further comprising means enabling remote access to said decoded content availability, scheduling and content pricing data, said remote access including a direct Internet access link to a website of the content provider or via phone line connection.

Claim 17. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 14, wherein said storage medium includes on selected from the group comprising: a read/write CD's, write only CD's, DVD RAM, magneto-optical disc, and digital tape, said means for recording including a device having a write/read mechanism for recording and playback of music content thereof.

Claim 18. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 15, further including means enabling a customer to listen to decoded and stored music selections one or more times on a no-charge basis prior to permanently selecting said recorded music selections that the customer desires to maintain for unrestricted playback.

Claim 19. (currently amended) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 18, further including means for generating a permanent enabling code ~~in~~that is provided subsequent to the recording of music selections that operates in cooperation with~~for inclusion with~~ said permanent recorded music selections to thereby enable said unrestricted playback.

C1 Claim 20. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 16, further including means for scheduling and transmitting encoded music content to a direct broadcast satellite up-link facility via said central controller, said means additionally transmitting program/pricing information to said up-link facility on a periodic basis.

Claim 21. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 11, wherein said direct broadcast satellite transmission operates in the KU Band of signals frequency communication, or other suitable frequency bands.

Claim 22. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 11, wherein said means for recording desired music selections in a storage medium direct includes a multiple disc platter for storing multiple disks each comprising recorded stored multimedia content.

Claim 23. (previously presented) The system for distributing music as claimed in Claim 11, wherein said computer-based recording, storage and playback station further includes digital content/programming transmission links including one or more selected from the group comprising: cable, optical fiber, DSL and Internet connections.

Claim 24. (previously presented) The method of claim 1, wherein the transmitted music is recorded on DVD RAM.

Claim 25. (previously presented) The system of claim 10, wherein the means for recording comprises DVD RAM.

Claim 26. (currently amended) A method of distributing music to customer households comprising the steps of:

blanket transmitting at faster than real time speeds a plurality of music selections to a plurality of customer households;

providing at least one customer household with information identifying available music selections that will be transmitted;

enabling the at least one customer household to preselect and record transmitted music selections;

permitting the at least one customer household to select previously recorded music selections for unrestricted playback;

communicating unrestricted playback selection information regarding the previously recorded music selections from the at least one customer household to a central controller system; and

Claim 27. (currently amended) A system for distributing music to customer households comprising the steps of:

a transmitter blanket transmitting, at faster than real time speeds, a plurality of music selections and information identifying available music selections to a plurality of customer households;

a computer-based recording, storage and playback station at at least one customer household, said station comprising:

a first interface enabling the customer to preselect, from the transmitted availability information, available music selections for recording;

a recording module recording transmitted music selections in a storage medium; a second interface enabling the customer to select previously recorded music selections to maintain for unrestricted playback; and an output communicating unrestricted playback selection information from the user station to a central controller system; and, a billing system associated with the central controller system to bill the at least one customer household for the recorded music selections that are selected for unrestricted playback.

Claim 28. (currently amended) A method of distributing music to customer households comprising the steps of:

blanket transmitting a plurality of music selections to a plurality of customer households;

providing at least one customer household with information identifying available music selections that will be transmitted;

enabling the at least one customer household to preselect and record transmitted music selections on DVD-RAM;

permitting the at least one customer household to select previously recorded music selections for unrestricted playback;

C1 communicating unrestricted playback selection information from the at least one customer household to a central controller system; and billing the at least one customer household for the recorded music selections that are selected for unrestricted playback.

✓ Claim 29. (canceled).

Claim 30. (previously presented) The system of claim 29, wherein the recording module further comprises a multidisk DVD RAM platter.

Claim 31. (new) A user station for enabling unrestricted playback of previously recorded music selections, the system comprising the components of:

a first interface enabling the customer to select previously recorded music selections to maintain for unrestricted playback;

C2 a second interface for communicating unrestricted playback selection information from the user station to a central controller system and for receiving enabling information for enabling unrestricted playback of the previously recorded music selections; and a billing system associated with the central controller system to bill the customer associated with the user station for the recorded music selections that are selected for unrestricted playback.

Remarks

The applicant has amended the claims and added a new claim in response to the Official Communication. The applicant submits that the amended claims are in condition for allowance. The applicant requests the Office to review the amended claims and new claim 31 in view of the following remarks and respectfully requests the Office to move this case towards allowance.

Paragraph 1 does not require a response.

In paragraph 2, the Office has rejected claims 1-21, 23, 26 and 27 under 35 U.S.C § 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by U.S. Patent Number 5,572,442 to Schulhof et al. The applicants submit the following argument in the traversal of this rejection.

The Office alleges that Schulhof teaches a second interface permitting the customer to select recorded music for unrestricted playback. However, in actuality, Schulhof teaches a method for selecting music that has yet to be recorded and identifying the type of usage for that selection prior to downloading and recording the music. This is most evident in the fact that the downloaded selections in Schulhof include information in the header identifying the type of usage allowed for the selection. Col. 9 lines 18-25. This is not the same as allowing a user to select an already recorded music selection as one that will be used for unrestricted playback and communicating this information to a central controller. The Office should appreciate that the technology required in implementing the present invention in comparison to Schulhof is quite different. In the present invention, content can be downloaded prior to the user determining what type of usage is desired. In Schulhof, the user must select the type of usage prior to downloading the content.

Thus, based on this distinction, as well as other aspects, the applicant submits that claims 1, 10, 26, 27 and 28 are in condition for allowance. These claims have been amended to more clearly indicate that the unrestricted selection is being made with regards to previously recorded selections. In addition, the applicant respectfully submits that new claim 31, which also includes this limitation, is also allowable. The applicant has canceled claim 30 with out prejudice.

Paragraph 3 does not require a response.

In paragraph 4, the Office has rejected claims 22, 24, 25 and 28-30 under 35 U.S.C § 103(a) as being unpatentable over by U.S. Patent Number 5,572,442 to Schulhof et al. The applicants submit the following argument in the traversal of this rejection. However, applicant submits that these claims, as well as claims 2-9, 11-25 and 30 all depend either directly, or indirectly from an allowable claim and thus, are also allowable.

Conclusion

The applicant respectfully submits that each and every issue raised by the Office has been addressed and that this case is in condition for allowance. If the Office has any questions regarding these claims or this response, the Office can call the applicant's attorney, Gregory Smith at (770) 804-9070.
